

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

Crescat scientia; vita excolatur

ABOUT UCHICAGO

Established in 1890

53 undergraduate majors
and 49 minors

217-acre campus in
Chicago, Illinois

90+ graduate programs

Affiliated medical center
w/ 13 hospitals & clinics

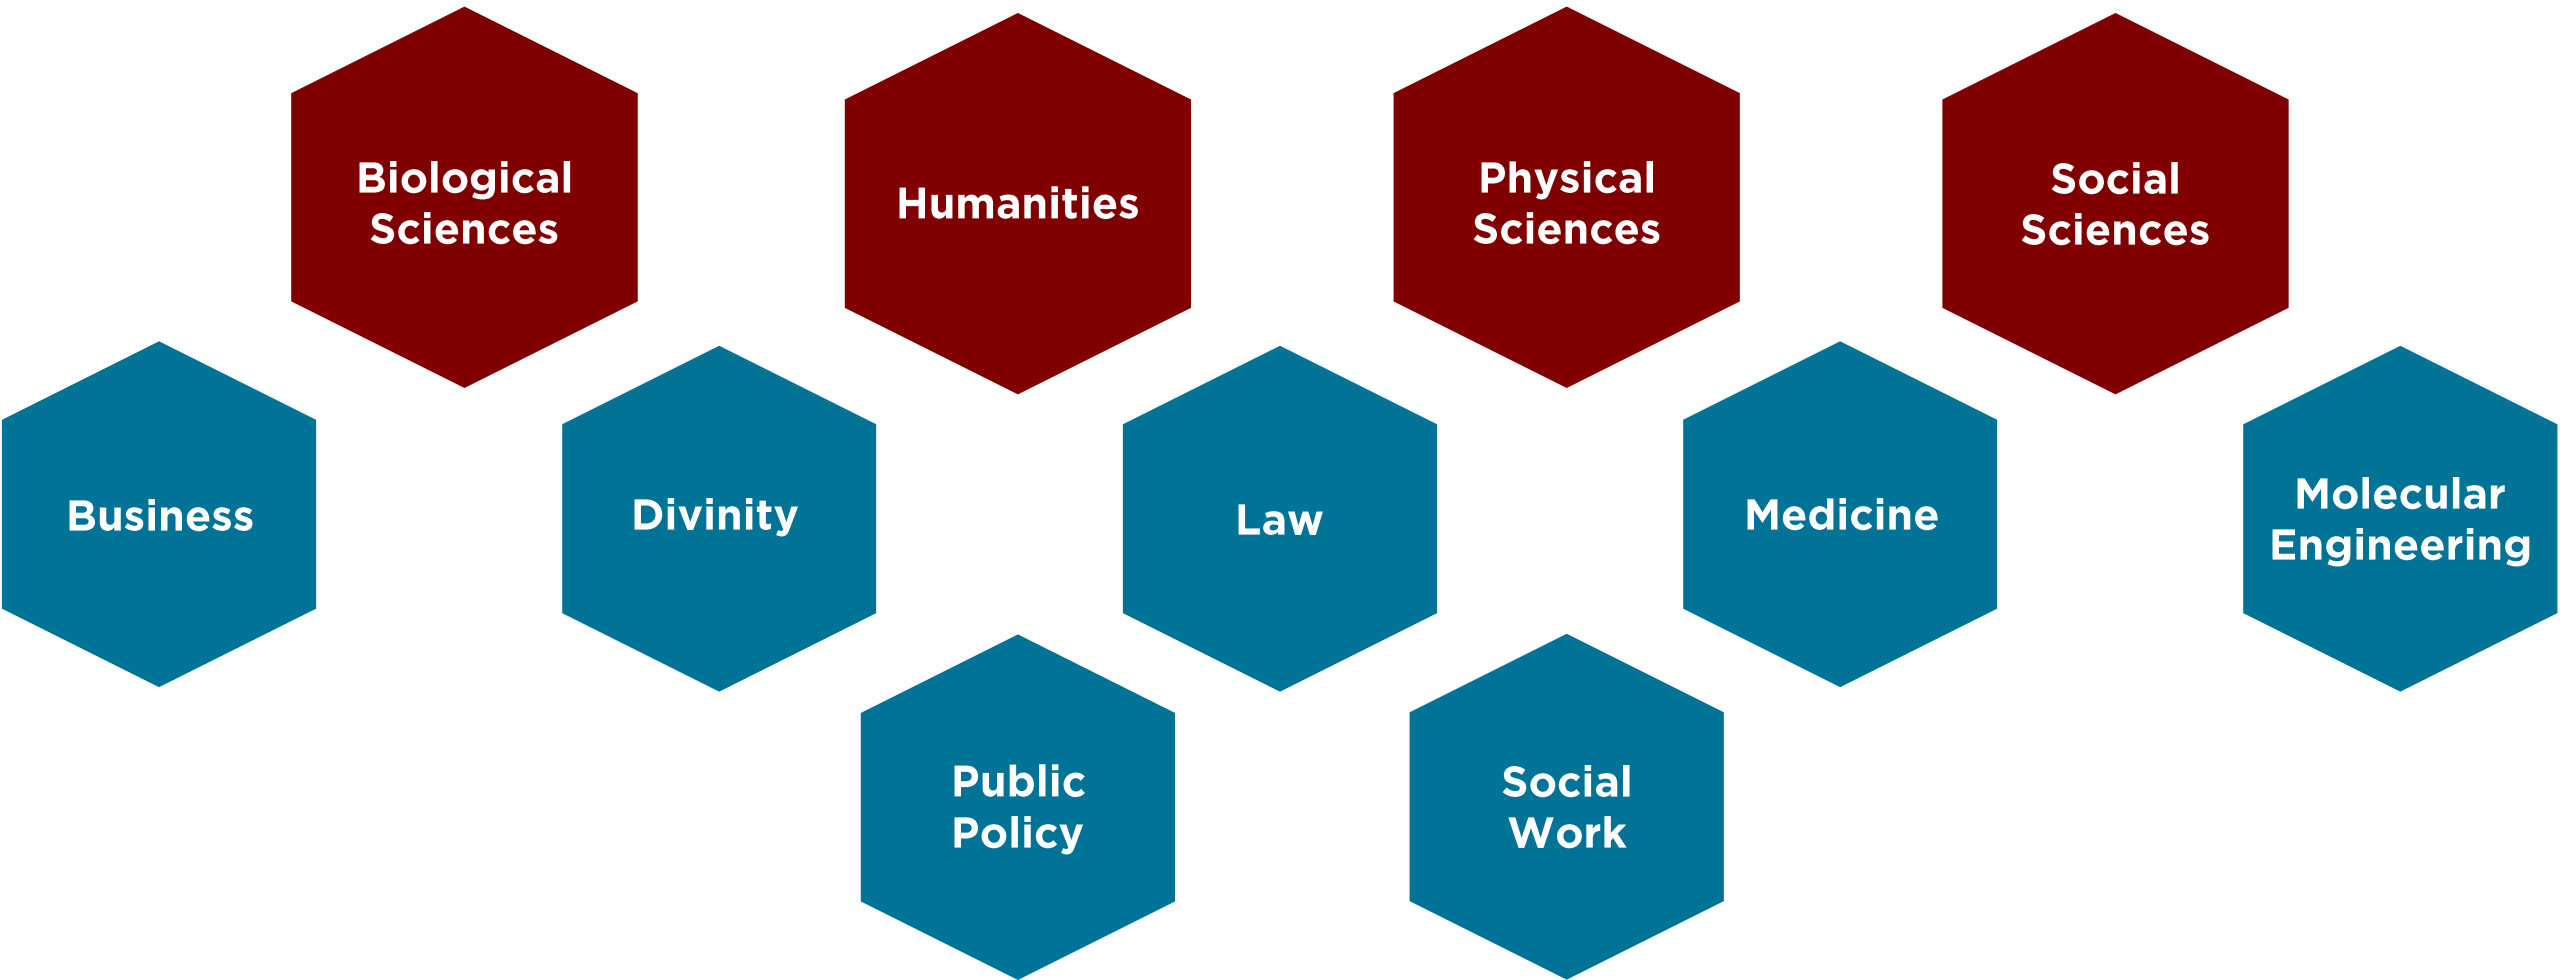

97 affiliated Nobel laureates

UCHICAGO COMMUNITY

ACADEMIC STRUCTURE

140+ INTERDISCIPLINARY CENTERS

THE COLLEGE

CONTINUING EDUCATION

NATIONAL & AFFILIATED LABORATORIES

BREAKTHROUGHS

1892

Established the academic field of sociology

1949

Performed the first bone marrow transplant

1907

Measured speed of light, winning first Nobel for a US scientist

1960

Revolutionized archaeology and paleontology with carbon-14 dating

1924

Discovered that the universe is expanding

1971

Devised the international standard for measuring tornado severity

1942

Conducted the first controlled, self-sustaining nuclear chain reaction

1976

Introduced the monetarist school of economics

BREAKTHROUGHS

1978

Identified earliest evidence of early hominids walking upright

2006

Discovered evolutionary link between fish and land animals

1983

Posited the existence of black holes

2010

Launched a new era of RNA modification research

1999

Invented grid computing

2013

Undertook the most comprehensive survey of dark energy in the universe

2002

Measured cosmic microwave background radiation

2017

Pioneered the field of behavioral economics

