UChicago-Taiwan Student Exchange (UCTS) Fellowship

Apply for a research position in Taiwan

If you are and will be a registered student at the University of Chicago next summer (2024) and are interested in conducting research in Taiwan, please check out the open positions under Taiwan PIs. You may contact your academic advisor or professors here at UChicago working in related fields for recommendation. We encourage you to initiate discussion with the Taiwan PIs on the availability to do short term research in Taiwan in 2024. All Taiwan PIs are familiar with the program and will provide information on the project and duration of the your research.

Once you obtain the offer from the PI, please work with him/her to apply for the research assistant position through the university website. Links to the application portals and required documents are provided below. Please indicate that you are supported by the UChicago-Taiwan program, your tuition, fees and housing will be waived or compensated.
